THANKS FOR PURCHASING THIS COMPUTER. WE PUT A LOT OF WORK INTO MAKING SURE IT WORKS RIGHT.

This is an official Geek Squad® Certified Refurbished Product. That means this computer has been thoroughly tested and inspected to confirm the following so you can confidently enjoy it far into the future. (We know you will. Because we've been to the future and seen it.)

- A Geek Squad Custom Hardware Diagnostic Check has been performed
- All data has been removed and the device has been restored to factory settings
- Original operating system has been re-installed
- Display and casing have been inspected for like-new condition
- Device has been thoroughly cleaned
- Serial number has been recorded
- Keyboard, trackpad and webcam have been tested for full functionality (when applicable)
- Wi-Fi and Bluetooth have been tested for full functionality (when applicable)
- Input/output ports, battery and AC adapter have been tested for full functionality (when applicable)
- CD/DVD/Blu-ray Disc™ drive, webcam, speakers and audio controls have been tested for full functionality (when applicable)

Having passed these tests with flying colors, your computer is in tip-top shape. Power up and enjoy.
